

CDC-Emory Elective Application 2016–2017

The CDC-Emory Elective introduces Emory medical students to applied epidemiology and the link between medicine and public health, all under guidance of experienced CDC epidemiologists, through participation in the CDC Epidemiology Elective Program. Students from Emory University School of Medicine or students in their MD/MPH year at the Rollins School of Public Health are eligible.

Applicant Information:

Name:

Email:

Phone:

CDC Epidemiology Elective Program Information

- 6–12 weeks, based at CDC Headquarters
- CDC-Emory elective students receive a $250 stipend
- Application deadline March 30 for fall semester rotations, May 30 for spring semester rotations
- This form due to Dr. McGowan by March 29 for fall semester rotations, May 29 for spring semester rotations
- Apply online at <http://www.cdc.gov/EpiElective>