Career Tip: Finding Your Leadership Style

What is leadership (other than a Douglas MacArthur quote)? Ultimately, leadership means something different to everyone. Not only do each of us have a unique leadership style, we also respond to various styles differently. In this article we're exploring several ways in which one uses leadership to influence and inspire others. READ MORE

Rollins Launches Regional Alumni Networks

Did you know that RSPH now has regional alumni networks all over the country? That's right! We've spent the last year building networks in Washington DC, Chicago, and the Research Triangle, and now we're moving onto Los Angeles and San Francisco! Our goal is to provide all of our alumni with social, philanthropic, and professional development opportunities in their current cities. There are many ways to get involved, from holding a chair position to simply attending events. CONTACT US TO LEARN MORE.

Why I Give to Rollins...

I give to Rollins so I can pay forward the gift of education and experience I received there. By funding my REAL job, supporting my research in Kenya and India, and allowing me to serve the Clarkston community as a Coverdell Fellow, Rollins enriched my MPH experience. Those experiences prepared me to be the successful professional I am today, and I want to be sure future students have these same opportunities and more.
